

I strongly oppose elimination of current standards regarding media ownership. I believe it is in the best interest of all "common citizens" to have enforced diversity in corporate media. I can only see detrimental effects resulting from removing the current limit on media ownership of 35%. I strongly urge the FCC to not allow media ownership by any single entity to be greater than 35% within that market.

Sincerely,

Jan True